Lumber Collection NYLTA
(New York Lumber Trade Association)
Scope & Content

The Lumber Collection consists of the records of the professional organization NYLTA (New York Lumber Trade Association). There are 7 linear feet of documents, monographs and photos.

The bulk of the collection is publications of the New York Lumber Trade Association, minutes and ledgers. There are numerous large group photos, some ephemera and founding documents. A collection of biographies provides information on notable people in the lumber profession and members of the NYLTA organization. The subjects of the biographies are listed in the finding aid.

Dates: 1886-1981
